RICE SELECTED TO ACT AS JUDGE

Unusual Court Situation Arises When Attorney Becomes Ill Just Before Adjournment

On account of the death of Clay Shackelford, brother of Judge W. R. Shackelford, a special judge was chosen to preside over the Madison circuit court and hear cases set for Tuesday. As provided by law, the attorneys at the bar made the selection.

Judge H. C. Rice was nominated by Attorney C. C. Wallace, and the nomination seconded by Attorney G. M. Smith. His selection was unanimous. He was sworn in by Circuit Clerk Waggers. Calling of the docket then began Tuesday morning.

Sam Isaacs was last week given a judgment for $250 against the city of Richmond for damage alleged to have been caused to his property in the East End by an overflowing sewer.

An unusual situation arose in circuit court last week when Attorney A. R. Burnam was taken ill with a deep cold and compelled to remain at home. He was defending the $25,000 damage suit of John E. Mathews, against the L. & N. railroad. The evidence had been heard and the case was ready for argument, when Mr. Burnam became so ill that he was compelled to go to his home. By agreement with Attorney Franklin, Talbott and Chapman of Lexington and Paris, representing Mathews, the case went over to November 2nd, at an extended term of court. The same jury which heard the evidence will return, hear the arguments and retire to make a verdict. Col. Bob Franklin, famous in murder trials for his oratory, will make the main argument to the jury for Mathews, it is understood.

Mr. Burnam's many friends were glad to see him out at court Tuesday morning, feeling much better.

CONGLETON CREDITORS VOTE ON RECEIVER

Security Trust Co. of Lexington, Named To Act For Firm But None Yet For Individuals

The Security Trust Company of Lexington, was named as receiver for the firm of Lee Congleton & Sons at the first meeting of the creditors of the company which recently filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in federal court. The hearing was held before Wm. Worthington, referee in bankruptcy, in the Fayette county court room. A number of Madison county creditors attended.

A lengthy preliminary discussion relating to all legal matters concerned with the assignment was first opened. Late Monday afternoon a vote on the receivership disclosed that the Security Trust Company had received 15 votes representing $38,10.25 while the other nominee, Joe Smith, had received two votes, representing $459.27.

The receiver for the individual members of the firm was not named at the meeting. The Security Trust Company received six votes representing $37,497.90, while Mr. Smith received 15 votes, representing considerably less than this amount. The law requires the receiver to receive the greater number of votes in addition to the largest amount of money over v.

At the meeting Monday the bids of the four lowest bidders on the eleven alternates were opened and considered. E. G. Holiday Company of Nashville, Tennessee, had withdrawn their certified check. This reduced the bidder to three. M. S. Pierce & Son, of Danville, Ky.; C. A. Rawlings, of Cincinnati, Ohio; and J. C. Miller, of Campbellsville, Ky.

After deductions were made for the alternates the bids of the three firms, considered with their previous bid of October 12th, were as follows:

W. S. Pierce & Son, $101,562.25
J. C. Miller ..... 99,450.00
C. A. Rawlings, ..... 103,007.25

After due consideration a motion was made and carried that the contract be let to J. C. Miller, of Campbellsville. Mr. Miller comes highly recommended. He built the school building at Lebanon, which is considered one of the best in the state. He expects to begin work within ten days. His contract includes the salvaging of the Caldwell building and also of the part of the old Madison High building which will have to be razed.

FORMER MADISONIAN DIES IN WINCHESTER

Mr. B. F. Todd, a former Madison county citizen, died suddenly in Winchester Saturday morning, just as he went to his place of business for the day. It was supposed by physicians that acute indigestion was the cause of his death, as he was seemingly in his usual health at the breakfast table and died in a few minutes after being taken to his home. Mr. Todd was one of the most prominent young merchants in the city, was 62 years of age, and is survived by a daughter and son. He formerly lived at Molerly, this county, and has numerous relatives and friends here. T. M. Wells, Major Wells and Cyrus T. Wells were nephews, and attended the funeral in Winchester Monday.

Local physicians were called but were unable to give relief. He, with Dr. W. F. Carter, started to Stamford to seek assistance but was suffering so intensely that they stopped at Crab Orchard where one of the physicians removed the steak, which contained small bone. ## WILL SURVEY ROADS

Federal Bureau Will Investigate Highways of Nation.

Seeks Information on Cost, Character of Construction and General Condition of Country's Roads—
Asks Cooperation.

Washington.—The bureau of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture will shortly undertake a survey of the mileage, cost, character of construction and general condition of the nation's highways. The survey, which is the most extensive ever undertaken and the first in seven years, is to be made with the aid of state and local officials and individuals the country over, and is comparable only to the great task of taking the national census.

Nobody, in all probability, could guess today within millions of dollars what the roadways total, in dollars and cents, on the ledger of the national assets. Nobody knows how many miles there are where wheels may roll. The strength and the weakness of the nation's transportation arteries likewise are unknown in detail.

When the survey is completed, all these and other facts will be known and will be available for guidance to road builders. In addition there will be abundant data to show up comparisons of costs. The well-built roads of, say, Pennsylvania can be laid, dollar for dollar and mile for mile, alongside the well-built roads of California and other states. First cost and maintenance of maintaining asphalt, concrete, every kind of road built—from one section to another—will be matched against such costs from every other section, if desired. The way to make the dollar most effective in road work thus will be pointed out.

Rural highways as well as urban are to be included, the latter embracing all roads, streets and alleys in incorporated communities of 2,500 inhabitants or more. How the funds are provided for constructing and maintaining roads also will be made known. The amount invested in road machinery—an item concerning which even approximate information is lacking today—will be sought. After the information is obtained it will be kept up to date.

In undertaking the survey the bureau requests the assistance of every unit of government doing road work in the nation, of road officials, the country over, and of associations, organizations and individuals, down to the man with a mower, having information or data as to local highway activities as future legislation may be based on.

It is pointed out that it is essential for each state to have its total, as well as its improved road mileage carefully and correctly recorded in the survey.

This being the organization meeting for the year 1921-22, the first item of business was the election of officers, resulting as follows: Miss Anna Snedder, president; Miss Olivia Colyer, vice president; Miss Sara Larson, secretary and treasurer. A short musical program was rendered at the conclusion of which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Ask yourself these simple questions: Do I feel tired when I get up in the morning? Am I all fagged out at night? Is my face pale and drawn? Do I suffer with pains in my muscles and joints? Am I subject to any skin trouble? Have I any pimples or boils? If you are answering yes to any of these questions, it is warning you that your body is not in the best of health. She who is not in the best of health needs help. She has done her best but is failing. Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy. ## Centers Around Opportunity Coupons Ambition has raised men from lowest circumstances to the highest pinnacles of fame. This world would be a mighty poor place to live in, were it not for ambition.

The Daily Register Grand Prize and Subscription Campaign is for the ambitious, the thrifty and for those who are willing to put their spare moments to profitable advantage.

The past two days we have laid stress upon "The Opportunity Coupons." All interest in this campaign from now until November 1st, centers around these coupons. We realize that for one to take advantage of the five Opportunity Coupons, amounting to 50,000 extra votes, one must have ambition, energy, perseverance, and stick-to-it-iveness. It is a known fact that ambitious people who strive to reach the top of the ladder, while they may not always succeed, do land somewhere along the middle. Those who lack the above mentioned quality never climb higher than the first few rounds.

At the present moment the top of the ladder is the obtaining of five OPPORTUNITY COUPONS. If you try for five you will at least secure one or more of these valuable Coupons. If you try for one only you may not even secure that one.

The advantages of these coupons are numerous:

1—They positively possess the greatest vote value that will be given during the entire campaign.

2—They will positively be withdrawn November 1st.

3—Those obtaining one or more of these Coupons can rest assured they will have a comfortable lead over candidates who enter at a later period.

4—By informing your friends that you have succeeded in securing one or more Coupons, they will know you are out to win and will give you their support.

There are many persons who would like to enter this campaign; but who are a trifle timid or do not fully understand its details. Again we say, all you have to do to enter, is to fill out the Nomination Coupon, appearing elsewhere in this paper, and send the same to the Daily Register. Better still, bring it yourself and talk over the matter with the Campaign Manager, whom you will find ready to assist in any way possible.

... campaign is in its infancy; in fact it has not even started well.

Doubtless you have been keeping in touch with the campaign, reading all the publicity since the opening announcements. You should bear in mind that a campaign of this magnitude requires an abundant amount of detail work, hence our previous efforts have been devoted solely to preliminary preparations.

Now, "Candidates to be," remember there is yet plenty of time for ambition and energy to assert itself; therefore, take advantage of the Opportunity Offer and get an even start while "Opportunity Period" is on.

The campaign will be over in five short weeks, and 2 automobiles, 1 Edison and 1 Victrola, together with a liberal cash commission, will be awarded to those who have shown pluck and ambition and have helped Madison county's enterprising daily.

In conclusion, ask yourself the following questions:

Are the prizes worth making a determined effort to win?

Could you spend your spare moments to better advantage?

Is this not the most liberal offer ever made by a newspaper in this vicinity?

HERD WANTS TO BUY A BLUE GRASS HOME

Hon. Harry B. Herd, of Texas, who visited Hon. J. A. Sullivan and other friends here for the week end, was given a cordial welcome back to his "old Kentucky home." He announced that he desired to purchase in the Blue Grass a good farm, well located and with large yard, forest trees and splendidly improved, large residence thereon, where one of his sons would reside permanently while he and his wife and other children and grandchildren will make it their summer home.

Monday night Mr. Herd returned to Georgetown, where his wife is visiting and said he would soon again return to Richmond this month for a stay here of 3 or 4 days, unless the threatened railroad strike will necessitate his departure to Texas.

Road Camp Convicts Had Big Outing

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 25. Criminal prosecution of officials of the Rockcastle county convict road camp who permitted 41 prisoners to leave the stockade Monday, October 16, will be undertaken if it is found that there is any sufficient malice which they can be prosecuted as is said at the State R. [Continued]

As soon as investigation of the incident, which resulted in the escape of 41 prisoners, eight of whom are still at large, is completed, the case is expected to be referred to the Attorney General. [Continued]

It developed that the incident on October 16, was not the only time Superintendent W. A. Stamp had permitted convicts to leave the stockade when not on duty. Last spring he allowed a base ball team of prisoners to go to Cynthiana to play a game. Superintendent Baugh said. At that time Stamp was warned not to allow a recurrence of the incident.

A large crowd gathered at the Bellevue cemetery at Danville last week to unveil a monument honoring the late Rev. George O. Barnes, one of the state's most noted evangelists. Addresses were made by the Rev. P. L. Bruce, the Rev. R. R. Noel, H. L. Duncan, Capt. S. D. VanPelt and others, with prayers and readings. A message also was read from the evangelist's daughter, Miss Marie Barnes, who accompanied the evangelist on most of his tours, as pianist. The monument was made possible by the donations of friends and is erected at the grave of the Rev. Barnes and his wife, which had long been neglected and unmarked before the inauguration of the movement. Dr. Barnes was one of the most noted preachers of his day and did a remarkable work. He had many loyal followers in this section of the state.

THEATRE CLUB BRINGS OUT SPLENDID TALENT

The first tryout for the Little Theatre Club of the Normal School was held in the chapel Monday night in which twenty aspirants participated. All of these people were very successful in gaining membership to this club which is one of the most coveted and distinct organizations on the campus, in that each individual must possess certain special talents and give proof of this before the other members of the club before he can become affiliated and be eligible for membership.

The Little Theatre Club was organized last year by Miss Ruebie Miller, head of the Expression Department, and within a very short time had won the support of the student body, the faculty and a large portion of the townspeople who witnessed its productions. It is the purpose of the club this year to continue this support and make it even more firm than it now is. For this reason the old members were especially careful in admitting new material but because of the efforts made by those seeking admittance and the excellent talent shown, every one of the twenty were voted upon satisfactorily.

A few days before the tryout the first business meeting of the club for the 1921-22 session was held and the following officers were elected: Mattie Jo Deathridge, president; Geneva Ford, secretary; Bradley Combs, treasurer; Henry Arnold, business manager. At the same time the procedure of the club for the year was outlined by Miss Miller, who spent two weeks in Chicago this summer in attendance at the conference of the coaches of the Little Theatre Clubs of America, where she obtained many new ideas that are to be placed in action this year. The club decided to have monthly meetings, which will be devoted to study of the production of plays, the writing of plays, the lives of the world's greatest actors at the different dramatic periods, stage settings and lighting effects.

The following people were admitted as members upon these elections which were presented on the night of the tryout:

Sarah Chenault, Carolyn Rice, Abby Elizabeth Larson and Dolly Pickels, who enacted the short playlet, "Joint Owners in Spain." Herbert Higgins, in the role of a negro preacher, demonstrated some rare qualities in being able to carry over the dialect of the colored brethren. L. R. Shearer read one of the famous Uncle Tom stories. Sarah Arkelton in reading Tarkington's "Seventeen" revealed to the club the possession of excellent mimetic ability, and the club feels that it is fortunate in getting such a member. Kearney Adams, in his address on "What is Life?" painted some vivid word pictures for his audience, bringing out his points in a clear cut manner. Earl Combs, Paul Bush and Viola Ford presenter "The Courier," "Presiding at Church" exposed qualities in Dorland Coates which many of his friends did not know he possessed. One of the most laughable and well enacted productions of the evening was that of "The Little Co-Ed" in which Verlinda Deatherage, Snelly Carr, Cowan Taylor and Ray Proctor appeared. Raymond Rouse read that famous sonnet of Milton on his blindness. The real talent of the modern vodvil was found in Mr. Chumley and Miss Anne Wallace, who almost convinced their audience that they were performers on the "big circuits."
